

Thank you for your interest in operating the café in the upper foyer at
The Questors Theatre

Ideally what do we require?

Well a café that meets the needs of all those who use our theatre and additionally brings more people to The Questors. In talking to our friends, patrons and members, a café that offers:

- all day snacks and refreshments
- lunch
- an interval service on performance nights

With a potential to offer:

- breakfast
- a pre-rehearsal menu and refreshments
- a pre-theatre menu and refreshments
- catering services for meetings and events

The usable space is approximately 7m (w) x10m (l) with seating for approximately 30 covers.

We need you to be aware that we operate a venue that during certain evenings and weekend times needs its upper foyer to be a rehearsal or educational space – around 30 instances a year – and those dates would be made clear to you.

In addition members expect to be able to sit at tables in the café if they are working on shows or waiting to audition but they will most definitely move if space is required by café patrons.

Tell me more about The Questors Theatre

Situated in Mattock Lane, Ealing W5, The Questors Theatre is arguably the largest amateur theatre in Europe. Apart from our office staff, tutors and teaching assistants all our activities, both back and front of house, happen because of our exceptionally talented volunteers who create great theatre.

We deliver theatre training for all ages and offer other regular courses. We perform in our own high-quality theatre venue - with our 350-seat Judi Dench Playhouse and 90-seat Studio theatre. We are fortunate to have three rehearsal rooms, a fully functioning workshop and exceptional wardrobe facilities.
